individuals affected by kidney diseases. AAKP fundamentally understands that kidney disease and the health and treatment of kidney patients pose a significant impact on the American taxpayer and the national economy. The cost of kidney disease alone invites constant and intense interest and concern within the Federal government and the U.S. Congress. The costs associated with the disease have spurred multiple Federal initiatives in the past several years designed to increase positive patient outcomes, reduce spending, and increase efficiencies. The move by the Federal government to examine and re-examine many of the cost-drivers within healthcare spending, and specifically within the ESRD program, represents a key reason why AAKP is working aggressively to build our capacities to raise the independent patient voice throughout the Federal policy-making process. In order for AAKP to maintain our leadership in protecting patient interests, and the overlapping interests among allies throughout the broader kidney community including the pharmaceutical industry and providers, we intend to grow our membership numbers, advance our National AAKP Ambassador Initiative, expand our reach internationally and equip kidney patients across the globe with proven and cost-effective training and technologies that make an impact on the policy process. The Center for Patient Engagement and Advocacy was created to leverage AAKP's increased profile and influence in the national public policy process and to expedite implementation of our national strategy to vastly expand patient involvement in the decisions impacting their health outcomes. The AAKP Center for Patient Engagement and Advocacy was created in 2014 to leverage AAKP's increased profile and influence in the national public policy process and to expedite implementation of our National Strategy to vastly expand patient involvement in the decisions that impact their health outcomes. The Center for Patient Engagement and Advocacy brings, under one focused area, all AAKP efforts to build patient and family/caregiver membership in AAKP as well as their participation in existing and emerging AAKP patient health engagement and advocacy programs. At the heart of this Center is the AAKP Ambassador Initiative, launched in 2017, the program has grown to more than 170 + Ambassadors across the U.S. In 2019, AAKP launched the AAKP Global, the global arm of this initiative, and now has Global Ambassadors in countries such as Ireland, Canada, Argentina, United Arab Emirates, Puerto Rico, and many more. Ambassadors are AAKP's most engaged volunteers who utilize their personal experiences and professional skills to contribute to both the AAKP mission and the larger kidney community based on their desire to serve a cause larger than themselves. These individuals also allow AAKP to expand our reach and resources to make a positive impact at the state and local level and globally. Major programs, initiatives, and campaigns within this Center also include The Decade of the Kidney, the Annual Global Summit on Kidney Innovation, the Annual Public Policy Summit, and the AAKP Action Center - which includes the AAKP KidneyVotervoter registration campaign and the AAKP Patient Voice Patient Choice initiative. Additionally, as part of the AAKP National Strategy, the Center for Patient Engagement and Advocacy works to engage, train, certify and deploy kidney patients in ways that are the most effective at elevating the patient voice within Federal policy-making circles. This includes critical times when national legislation, health program implementation, regulations or potential delays in the pharmaceutical approval process pose a concern to patient access to quality care or their future healthcare outcomes. AAKP is engaging and encouraging kidney patients and caregivers to participate in substantive opportunities for effective patient engagement and advocacy. To date, AAKP has developed and makes available OnDemand over a dozen Advocacy and Engagement Skills Training sessions.

AAKP operates via key distinctives and principles:

1. Elevate patient voice in national issues and across drug, diagnostic and device development
2. Protect the unique relationship between patients and their doctors
3. Educate patients and preserve their access to choices as informed consumers of healthcare
4. Maintain full independence in all national policy and decisions - never surrender your letterhead
5. Honor the principle of "no surprises" among trusted allies and Federal government officials

AAKP has a history of advocating on important issues affecting patients' care, choice and access to approved treatments, increased research and innovation, and much more. The Advocacy Program helps support initiatives such as: Capitol Hill Day visits, participation in meetings/seminars/conventions, public policy, Communication, research issues affecting patients and practical tools that explain how to be more effective advocates.

kidney medicine, including research, clinical trials, product design, market delivery, and timely patient access to new drugs, devices, and diagnostics. The virtual meeting broke all previous engagement records and drew patients from 46 states and territories. The agenda featured 25 sessions and over 60 patient expert, government, medical, and industry speakers. care options which align with their life's goals and aspirations. AAKP is a recognized leader for patient-centered education - continually developing high quality, professionally written, edited and reviewed material.

2.Advocate: for policies that improve treatment and extend life for kidney disease patients - always defending patient choice. AAKP has been the independent patient voice - advocating for improved access to high-quality healthcare through regulatory and legislative reform at the Federal level. The Association's work has improved long-term outcomes in both quality of health and the ability for patients and family members affected by kidney diseases to lead a more productive and meaningful life.

3.Define: "patient engagement" as a substantive tool to impact policy & health outcomes.

4.Community: AAKP is leading the effort to bring kidney patients together to promote community, conversations and to seek out services that help maximize patients' everyday lives.

The AAKP fulfills our educational mission through an extensive patient education program to inform and educate kidney patients, their families, and the general public on kidney diseases. To meet the needs of all individuals, AAKP offers its programs in a variety of mediums: print, web-based and live (in-person). AAKP services more than one million individuals annually via its various educational programs and communication platforms.

AAKP's bimonthly magazine, aakpRENALIFE, averages more than 400,000 readers/views annually and includes information about the latest news, education, policy/legislative issues, innovations/research occurring in the kidney community and patient/caregiver/living donor profiles. The magazine is also distributed to over 7,000 dialysis centers nationwide and has a substantial afterlife as it remains in dialysis centers for quite some time after mailing. aakpRENALIFE is available via print/digital medium and is archived on www.aakp.org for a term of one year.

AAKP's monthly e-newsletters, collectively, were delivered more than 250,000 times during this year - including aakpRENALFLASH (designed for individuals on dialysis); Kidney Transplant Today (designed for individuals with or interested in a kidney transplant); Kidney Beginnings (designed for and new patients learning more about their disease; At Home with AAKP (designed for individuals on or interested in home dialysis therapies) and AAKP Pediatric Kidney Patients (designed for peds, adolescents and their families).

AAKP hosts its monthly HealthLine webinar series for patients and the public on timely and relevant topics such as managing risk factors for These webinars are recorded and made available OnDemand to accommodate all schedules and needs and reach thousands annually. AAKP has expanded this webinar program to include an Innovator series, which highlights the latest research and innovation occurring in the kidney space.

AAKP utilizes a variety of communication platforms to reach approximately one million individuals annually. Included in that reach is AAKP's social medial platforms: Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Instagram, Pinterest, and YouTube Channel. AAKP's website (www.aakp.org) has over 420,000-page views annually. The website features the AAKP Center for Patient Research and Education and Center for Patient Engagement and Advocacy - including: "education (CKD, dialysis, transplant, co-related health conditions; causes of kidney disease; rare disease; nutrition); clinical trials/market research opportunities; Action Center (advocacy initiatives; policy issues; voter registration); patient engagement (Ambassador Initiative; Speakers Bureau; Veterans Health initiative; KidneyWorks; Support Groups), programs/events (National Patient Meeting; Cystinosis Scholarship Program, Medal of Excellence; Policy Summit; Global Summit; Patient Safety Program), and online store to download/purchase materials.

Presidential Volunteer Service Awards

AAKP is a PVSA-authorized and certifying organization and the largest organization in the kidney space that participates in this important American initiative. In 2020, AAKP launched its inaugural PVSA program, and twenty-nine kidney advocates received recognition from President Donald J. Trump for their work to educate high-risk immunosuppressed and immunocompromised kidney patients on threats posed by COVID-19. The PVSA was founded by President George W. Bush in the aftermath of the terror attacks of September 11, 2001, as one of several initiatives, including the President's Council on Service and Civic Participation, designed to encourage and exemplify the strength of outstanding American volunteerism and community engagement. The award program has continued under successive presidential administrations. The PVSA program is led by AmeriCorps (formerly the Corporation for National and Community Service), an organization whose vision originated in the administration of President William J. Clinton, and is managed in partnership with Points of Light, an organization whose vision is rooted in the administration of President George H.W. Bush.

In 2022, President Joseph R. Biden recognized a number of AAKP patients and advocates with a U.S. PVSA. Six AAKP leaders received the President's Lifetime Achievement Award, the highest level of recognition that is unique and recognizes an exemplary level of volunteerism to build a stronger nation through volunteer service, including the investment of thousands of hours of personal time and professional expertise. The AAKP members who received the Presidential Lifetime Achievement Award, as well as PVSA awards at the gold, silver, and bronze levels, are nationally known advocates deeply involved in efforts to impact kidney science, innovation, and policy through collaborations with top kidney scientists, elected and appointed leaders, federal agencies, investors, major companies and startups, and nearly every major academic research center and university involved in kidney research.

AAKP firmly believes, as research has also shown, that patient and family member/caregiver education is an integral part of treatment and enhancing quality of life. Not educating a patient and their care partner about their condition and treatment options leaves the patient at risk for complications as well as the possibility of not selecting a course of treatment best suited for them. Education is a simple and effective way to improve overall health and achieve better outcomes. In the same vein, AAKP is uniquely positioned to ensure the patient has a central role in research and other activities that are designed to determine optimal approaches and strategies for providing healthcare services, assistance programs, access to new products and services, etc. AAKP constituents represent all ages, modalities, ethnicities, disease states, and a variety of demographic indicators. AAKP's research capabilities have grown rapidly, and the Association has created a sophisticated database and expansive social media channels which allow AAKP to better connect and learn from its constituents. In turn, AAKP provides education to patients and caregivers on what it means to be involved in research initiatives as well as opportunities to get involved. From online surveys, interviews, focus groups, and clinical trial awareness campaigns - AAKP is focused on inserting important patient insight and preferences into research to help inform innovation, advance care and make a meaningful impact to improve lives - this means AAKP members are helping shape the future policies and discoveries that characterize kidney care! AAKP is known within the renal community as a leader in quality education; taking time to produce programs and materials that are current, relevant and address the most pressing issues patients and their families face. AAKP is deliberate in its development of educational programs, working closely with its Medical Advisory Board, health educators and fellow patients to create unbiased, reliable resources that are easily understood and beneficial to patients. AAKP routinely uses matrices to measure program outcomes to assess effectiveness and success as well as opportunities for enhancement. AAKP offers its programs in a variety of mediums to ensure we reach as many patients as possible (print, online/web-based, smart devices, live/in-person).

Patient Pocket Guides:

This brochure series offers a template for AAKP to develop a number of convenient, pocket sized guides that focus on a variety of important healthcare topics that patients can keep with that list top questions to ask their healthcare team to better understand/manage conditions.

"AAKP Pocket Guide to Managing Kidney Disease: This Pocket Guide is a tool to help patients and caregivers have more effective dialogue with their healthcare teams. It includes 5 Key Questions to Ask your Doctor/Medical Specialist, as well as additional questions for each stage of Chronic Kidney Disease.

"AAKP Pocket Guide to Managing High Potassium: The Pocket Guide is a tool to help kidney patients and caregivers have more effective dialogue with their healthcare teams about the risks associated with high potassium levels and the best way to manage it.

"AAKP Pocket Guide to Managing Chronic Kidney Disease Associated Pruritus: The Pocket Guide is a tool to help kidney patients and caregivers have more effective dialogue with their healthcare teams about Chronic Kidney Disease Associated Pruritus (CKD-aP), moderate to severe itching associated with dialysis, and the best way to manage it.

Cystinosis Patient Education and Activity Scholarship Program:

While a variety of factors may cause an individual to be diagnosed with kidney disease, genetic and rare causes can be especially difficult for patients and family members to manage. Understanding the need to support individuals who have kidney diseases caused by a genetic or rare condition, AAKP has expanded its education, advocacy efforts and services to those affected. In support of AAKP's Pediatric and Rare Disease Initiatives, AAKP launched its Cystinosis Patient Education and Activity Scholarship Program for those affected with cystinosis in 2019. The objective of the scholarship program is to provide an exclusive opportunity for people living with cystinosis to provide inspiration, further their education and pursue opportunities toward long-term career goals and life aspirations. This scholarship program is open to individuals diagnosed with cystinosis. Scholarship funds are available to age groups 5-17 years of age and 18+. Program Service Accomplishments Line 4d: National Awards ProgramAAKP Center for Patient Engagement and Advocacy:

The AAKP has been a national leader in patient advocacy and education for over 50 years - and is the largest fully independent and patient-governed organization in the kidney ecosystem. AAKP is highly regarded across the Federal government among both career and appointed policy-makers and our influence in the Executive Branch and the U.S. Congress transfers across transitions and elections cycles due to our massive network of relationships and long-held reputation as an independent voice for patients. AAKP believes that patients and industry must be at the table together and engaged at all levels of decision-making whenever the Federal government seeks to implement wide-ranging initiatives that impact innovation and shape future access to care options for individuals affected by kidney diseases. AAKP fundamentally understands that kidney disease and the health and treatment of kidney patients pose a significant impact on the American taxpayer and the national economy. The cost of kidney disease alone invites constant and intense interest and concern within the Federal government and the U.S. Congress. The costs associated with the disease have spurred multiple Federal initiatives in the past several years designed to increase positive patient outcomes, reduce spending and increase efficiencies. The move by the Federal government to examine and re-examine many of the cost-drivers within healthcare spending, and specifically within the ESRD program, represents a key reason why AAKP is working aggressively to build our capacities to raise the independent patient voice throughout the Federal policy-making process. In order for AAKP to maintain our leadership in protecting patient interests, and the overlapping interests among allies throughout the broader kidney community including the pharmaceutical industry and providers, we intend to grow our membership numbers, advance our National AAKP Ambassador Initiative, expand our reach internationally and equip kidney patients across the globe with proven and cost-effective training and technologies that make an impact on the policy process. The Center for Patient Engagement and Advocacy was created to leverage AAKP's increased profile and influence in the national public policy process and to expedite implementation of our national strategy to vastly expand patient involvement in the decisions impacting their health outcomes. The AAKP Center for Patient Engagement and Advocacy was created in 2014 to leverage AAKP's increased profile and influence in the national public policy process and to expedite implementation of our National Strategy to vastly expand patient involvement in the decisions that impact their health outcomes. The Center for Patient Engagement and Advocacy brings, under one focused area, all AAKP efforts to build patient and family/caregiver membership in AAKP as well as their participation in existing and emerging AAKP patient health engagement and advocacy programs. At the heart of this Center is the AAKP Ambassador Initiative, launched in 2017, the program has grown to more than 160 + Ambassadors in nearly all 50 states plus D.C. In 2019, AAKP launched the Global arm of this initiative and now has Global Ambassadors in countries such as Ireland, Canada, Argentina, United Arab Emirates and Puerto Rico. Ambassadors are AAKP's most engaged volunteers who utilize their personal experiences and professional skills to contribute to both the AAKP mission and the larger kidney community based on their desire to serve a cause larger than themselves. These individuals also allow AAKP to expand our reach and resources to make a positive impact at the state and local level and globally. Since 2018, AAKP has conducted the largest virtual kidney voter registration drive in America, the "I am a Kidney Voter" campaign, which has registered patients in every state. #IAMAKidneyVoter, #KidneyVoter. Major programs within this Center include the Decade of the Kidney, the Global Summit on Kidney Innovation, the Public Policy Summit, and the Ambassador Initiative. Additionally, as part of the AAKP National Strategy, the Center for Patient Engagement and Advocacy works to engage, train, certify and deploy kidney patients in ways that are the most effective at elevating the patient voice within Federal policy-making circles. This includes critical times when national legislation, health program implementation, regulations or potential delays in the pharmaceutical approval process pose a concern to patient access to quality care or their future healthcare outcomes. AAKP is engaging and encouraging kidney patients and caregivers to participate in substantive opportunities for effective patient engagement and advocacy. AAKP operates via key distinctives and principles:

1. Elevate patient voice in national issues and across drug, diagnostic and device development
2. Protect the unique relationship between patients and their doctors
3. Educate patients and preserve their access to choices as informed consumers of healthcare
4. Maintain full independence in all national policy and decisions - never surrender your letterhead
5. Honor the principle of "no surprises" among trusted allies and Federal government officials

AAKP has a history of advocating on important issues affecting patients' care, treatment, options, medications and such. The Advocacy Program helps support initiatives such as: Capitol Hill Day visits, participation in meetings/seminars/conventions, public policy, Communication, research issues affecting patients and practical tools that explain how to be more effective advocates.

The Decade of the Kidney

The Decade of the Kidney is a transformative announcement AAKP made in June of 2019 at its 2nd Annual National Policy Summit in Washington, D.C. designed to unite the community around a central thought - or a "big idea." From 2020-2030, during the Decade of the Kidney, we will see even greater contributions from every sector of our society and

Name of the organization	American Association of Kidney Patients, Inc.	Employer identification number	11-2306416

every discipline. These include medicine, science, academia, elected officials, industry, media, entertainment, government, the military and insights from our veteran populations. These sweeping changes will not be limited to our shores as Americans - they will incorporate the vibrant contributions of scientists, researchers and clinicians around the world whose achievements are moving us closer to addressing the toughest kidney diseases. As patients we know that kidney disease affects people everywhere - it does not discriminate, it knows no political affiliation and it recognizes no border. To accelerate change, AAKP believes that a far larger strategic context and message is needed to unite a broader base of Americans and far more communities behind ongoing efforts to fight kidney disease and give hope to the 40 million Americans who suffer from kidney diseases. We believe that the Decade of the Kidney will do precisely that - help explain to the general public and national policy leaders that each of our singular efforts and innovations underway in kidney disease are in fact part of a far larger national effort to save and improve lives for those who suffer from kidney disease - and those yet to be diagnosed. AAKP recommitted itself to this original formula and strategy to gain new national relevance; exponentially greater engagement and growth among kidney patients and their families; and far greater influence to push for greater patient choice and more innovative care options for patients. Working together, AAKP and its members and allies have achieved profound impacts in the past several years - including legislation that allows HIV to HIV organ transplants, lower prescription drug costs and, most recently, AAKP contributed to the White House Executive Order on Advancing American Kidney Health and the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) initiatives to fight kidney disease. AAKP also believes that by uniting all sectors of the kidney community under one strategic theme - it will be far easier to secure additional media and grassroots support, national research funding and public understanding for kidney disease.

Global Summit on Kidney Innovation

The Global Summit is a two-day event in Washington, D.C. designed to engage the top international experts in the field of kidney care including healthcare professionals, academics, government leaders and regulators, industry experts, entrepreneurs, and patient advocates. This event is a partnership of the George Washington University School of Medicine, one of the top medical schools in the nation with an internationally recognized kidney care program, and the American Association of Kidney Patients (AAKP), the oldest and largest fully independent kidney patient organization in the United States. The 2020 Global Summit hosted virtually in response to the Coronavirus pandemic, highlights include: Over thousands of registrants, 20 special medical and patient expert sessions, 5 countries represented by speakers, and 70 countries reached via the live stream. Panel presentations and discussions were recorded and made available OnDemand on the AAKP website for enduring education.

Speakers Bureau

The AAKP Speakers Bureau, under the AAKP Center for Patient Engagement and Advocacy, provides the public, private sector companies and non-profit organizations with highly knowledgeable experts committed to advancing the AAKP mission through personal experiences and expertise. Together, our speakers share a wide range of disease and treatment experiences, and their combined professional portfolios include published articles and books, participation in key government initiatives, industry focus groups and clinical trials, and testimony before Federal agencies. The AAKP Speakers Bureau is AAKP's contribution to the growing movement to generate greater public understanding of kidney disease nationwide, from local towns to the corridors of government in our nation's capital.

AAKP Veterans Health Initiative

The AAKP Veterans Health Initiative (VHI), based within the AAKP Center for Patient Engagement and Advocacy, is designed to advance research, innovation and policies aimed at safeguarding the highest standards in kidney care and treatment for veterans managing kidney disease both inside and outside the VA medical system. AAKP utilizes sophisticated social media and grassroots technologies to engage patients, medical professionals, and the public and to voice their concerns among policymakers. Veterans and their families face many unique challenges related to managing their healthcare and this is especially true for veterans who suffer from kidney and other complex, chronic diseases. AAKP is committed to making its fellow veterans have their voice heard, retain access to the care they have earned and are legally entitled to at the VA and elsewhere and gain the benefit of new research and innovations in the realms of biologics, diagnostics, and devices.

AAKP's Ambassador Initiative:

The AAKP Ambassador Initiative is part of our Center for Patient Engagement and Advocacy. Strategic Partnerships and Alliances:

AAKP has maintained our national reputation as a trusted and independent voice for patients by both maintain our independence and through a select and targeted series of collaborative relationships with other non-profit professional and patient organizations. Before AAKP collaborates with any organization, we pose several questions to assess their credibility in our order to protect our organization and the patient interests we represent. These questions include:

1. Will our association with this organization discredit the AAKP mission and legacy?
2. Will our association with this organization confuse or contradict the AAKP message?
3. Will our association with this organization turn away potential long-term allies?
4. Will our association with this organization discourage elected/career policy-maker interest or support of policy goal?
5. Will our association with this organization fulfill a negative narrative already underway about your issue/community?
